

Telemarketing is an invasion of privacy. Indiana's do-not-call law is necessary to strengthen the relatively weaker national law. My future voting preferences will consider candidates' records on this issue.